

It is unfortunate that Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing its viewers to see partisan political commentary on publicly subsidized airwaves 2 weeks before the election.

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Please take the appropriate action or else this will set a harmful precedent.
Thank you.
